SENIORS

CLASS

If you hoped that "everything you ever wanted to ask about the Seniors but were afraid to know" will be in this class history — you're wrong! The class has very few memories of the good old days, but the girls can't forget "The Movie" that was shown in fifth grade. Laura M., Clair C. and all the other "social butterflies" will remember meeting their steadies at Damon Rock while in the sixth grade Marla C., Dottie H., and Nancy S., met their boyfriends in the woods behind Central School. (Where there's a will, there's a way.) While they were out socializing, other people gave their teacher an ulcer, isn't that true Susan P., Jane B., David C. and other members of Miss Reardon's fourth grade class. And does anybody remember the wiffle Steve P. had in the sixth grade. Or the onion fight where Joe T. left his onion in Mr. Pratt's room . . . While Arthur H. was near tears in front of all the other sixth graders after his cherry bomb went off under a car, Walter A. got a spanking from Mrs. Hammil.

We all trooped into the Junior High — no longer children, all the girls wearing bras except Nancy O. But the problems facing us now were big ones — how to safely pass Mrs. Keenan's shower checks and still keep your clothes on, or how to square dance with the boys in gym without really touching them. And how was Mrs. Soccorso suppose to answer Wendy S. question in the seventh grade Biology class without "blowing her mind."

In eighth grade almost every student had to take typing with Mrs. Johnson (a-q-a-z . . .) and almost every student tried to skip and almost every student was able to walk safely past her window without her even seeing you. Nobody who ever went to Chris G. parties will ever forget them. How about the day Geoff N. had it out with Mrs. Smith but Mr. Callis had to interfere. Nobody can ever forget Mrs. Smith and her tactful? comments, isn't that right Jeff S. Ted K. and Eric S. will never forget what good friends? they were? We can't forget Mr. Jones and his "nifty days" or Miss Giles and her place at the end of the hall.

Well we moved right up in the world by coming to this here High School. Meagan H. made her grand entrance into the library in Freshman year by falling down the entire flight of stairs. And our float didn't make a very good impression either, because we came in last place.

During our Sophomore year we didn't do much better — our float fell apart the night before Homecoming. But Paul T. had fun chasing people around in the golf cart. At our car wash a man said we scratched his car while we were washing it, but it wasn't true because we didn't wash any cars — we were too busy "washing ourselves." Mary Lou M. went out with "Paul McCartney," and Pam M. and Dotty L. were busy taking pounds of hamburger and whipped cream and storing it in the Home Ec kitchen drawers when "teacher" wasn't looking.

Martha H., Lee T., Kathy M., Kathy G., and Dotty L. — remember going to the haunted house after going out for French food . . . Nancy O. drew a cartoon of Mr. Barlow with an exaggerated nose and chin while he was standing behind her. And as long as we live we can't forget Sophomore Skip Day when half the class skipped school and went to the beach. Mr. Clancy brought a bus to round us up and Mike F. found two new friends.

Junior year brought lots of memories. Jim B. tangled with the "Back Bay Bomber," in Cafe B and we won't forget that the "Back Bay Bomber" was a girl. It was the year of Mr. Sheehan's and Mr. Parker's Historic trip to P-Town. The weird people we saw there and the "pink" boats are still remembered clearly. Oh — and Miss Gonsalves third period gym class — don't forget the "neck breaking" hockey games complete with hip-checking and high sticking with parties on top of the lockers afterwards . . . Where Renee D. flask in her knee sox first originated. The float meetings were fun and not much work got done. The boys played football in Paul T's yard while the girls worked. Lee T's car ran away and somehow a flashing light appeared on someone's doorstep. At Kathy M. Homecoming Party, some people had lots of fun! Where did Wendy S. and Bob M. go? And why was Matt W. eating Sea shells (oh yes — he thought they were potato chips.) April vacation brought lots of fun — hey Gerry M., Allan H., Eric S., and Geoff N., and others, do you remember gazing at the full moons? George N., Mike P., Eric S., and Bob M., do you remember taking the cones off the expressway and what was in the trunk!

To be serious for a second, we owe a lot to Bill H. for bringing our class together and thank Mrs. Burns and Mr. Anzivino for being our advisors.

Our show was the greatest and a switch from the usual. Mike P. became Mr. America, Mike F. was a hit as a magician and we saw the kind of writing Gerry C. does . . . Mr. Jackman spilled Clair C's test tube and Polly F. chased him around the room. In other chemistry classes G. T. (Get Tiger) day was every day. Those water bottles were the greatest and the water fights something else . . . Trees kept getting in the way of those who went skiing — Cheryl C., Kelly S. and Cindy H. Some members of our class almost made the top 10 wanted list, Cindy R., Peggy M., Jane L., Mike F., Gary M., and Lisa S. were chased by the police at four o'clock in the morning because they painted "Football Rock." They made their get-away and hid on Peggy's porch.

Finally!!! We are the Mighty, Mighty Seniors and after the second day of school had "senioritis" . . . There was a pretty good food fight between the Senior boys and the Junior boys one day in Cafe B but that was soon stopped. Our Variety show turned out OK but the parties afterwards were best . . . Bumper to bumper traffic . . . and the hopeless search of a place to go. New stars were born — Bob W. and his "cute" wiggle and Allan H. and his childish ways. We had the first "movie stars" in our class too, Karl F., Ted K., and Vance M. were on "It's Academic" and represented our school. They did quite a job. So far it's been an eventful year and as for the future — Anything Goes.

National Honor Society

The Anne Cunneen Chapter of the National Honor Society received its charter in 1957. The Chapter was named for Miss Anne Cunneen who had given unselfishly of herself to the young people of Scituate for many years. In fact, she was working with pupils while she was seriously ill right up to the time of her death. She was respected and admired by all who knew her, and to name the Chapter for her was a fitting tribute.

Students are eligible for membership in the Society in the Junior year with an academic average of 90 in major subjects from the ninth grade to the middle of the twelfth grade. Another opportunity for membership comes after the first semester of the Senior year if the student has an average of 86 for three-and-a-half years.

While scholarship is the initial basis for selection, students who qualify are expected to have demonstrated leadership, service, and unquestionable character. Thus the four qualities emphasized in the induction service.

SCHOLARSHIP * CHARACTER * LEADERSHIP * SERVICE

Chancellors

This year the Chancellors have made several appearances, including one at the New England Solo and Ensemble Auditions Festival in December. The Chancellors sing a wide variety of music; barbershop, Negro Spiritual, and popular. The group is young this year, and is sure to grow and improve.

Ann-
It's been great knowing you, and it won't be the same without you. Never forget the fun we had in "Wrong Note

Chanterells

Scituate High School's Chanterells are a selected girls ensemble that is one of the highlights of the Music department. The 72-73 Chanterells are an especially well-balanced group. The membership requirements for the group are not easy, as the girls must sight-read music, and be able to project. The selection of music the girls sing varies from popular tunes like the Carpenter's "Rainy Days and Mondays" to a trilogy of American Folk songs. They also sing in many languages, from Hawaiian to French. The group has been rated as one of the best ensembles in New England. The twelve girls and accompanist work hard for their rewards but if you've heard them, it's worth it!

Drama Club

National Thespian Society

The National Thespian Society is an organization which helps recognize outstanding achievement and contributions in dramatic productions. Membership in this society is based upon the amount of work done either on or behind the stage in promoting dramatic presentations. Set designers, lighting crews, set constructors, and the actors on stage are all to be found in the society. It is basically a society of people concerned with furthering the art of Drama.

STAIRCASE

The AFS Club works on many diversified fund raising projects throughout the year. Much of the money accumulated goes to help the Scituate Adult AFS Chapter sponsor exchange students. Ingrid Janssens from Belgium spent the '72-'73 academic year in Scituate while Cynthia Ransom spent the summer of '72 in Austria.

The purpose of the Chess Club is to supply competition and instruct chess players so that more enjoyment may be acquired and game improvement may be accomplished.

The Chess Club was revived this year and received an immediate enrollment of about 20 members. It meets on a weekly basis so that inter-club competition may take place. At this time it is also determined which players should be eligible to compete for SHS in the South Shore Interscholastic Chess League. The SSIC division offers 10 matches both home and away. They occur on consecutive Mondays from mid-December to the first of April. In April, an individual competition begins.

Sailors Football, A Great Success!

Scituate's history of having a mediocre football team at last has ended. The Sailors finished off with an impressive 7-2-0 record, second only to that of the O.C.L. Champs.

At the outset of the season, the odds were stacked against Scituate. How could a small team of Scituate's caliber, ever come close to a title, especially with a rookie coach at the helm? Well, it seemed these doubters were right as the Sailors dropped their first game to a strong Whitman-Hanson team, by a score of 6-0. Discouraged but not broken, the Sailors bounced back with seven straight victories to lead the league going into a crucial Thanksgiving Day game against a strong Marshfield team. But all hopes were shattered when the final seconds ticked away. Again as in the beginning, the Sailors walked off the field on the short end of a 6-0 game.

There were many bright spots during the season, dealing with players, coaches and most of all support. It was evident that support this year more than any other, played a key role in the Sailors success. Never before has there been such enthusiasm throughout the student body. Attendance boomed and the over-all attitudes of every supporter changed. A pride has developed this year which will last for years to come. On behalf of the Senior football players thank you for helping us celebrate a great year.

P. J., oh P. J., We almost went all the way. We appreciate ya!

To be a great team,
you have to practice.
But there is a point where it becomes agony. Right! Wild
Bill!

A greater team, there will never be; for we're the Class of
"73"!

I have had playmates,
I have had companions,
In my days of childhood,
In my joyful school-days,
All, all are gone,
The old familiar faces.

Anne,
I'm not signing by my picture because it
stinks - but anyway do you believe this is our last day - remember in 8th grade the singing group - broog's - now can you forget - we've had good times + that party
where the civil war broke out - well,
good luck in the future -
Patty

Ann, I'd like to wish you all possible happiness and good fortune. This may sound dumb
but I'm really glad to know you.

"Don't it always seem to go that you don't know what you've got 'til it's gone . . ."

Well, here we go. Remember the last one when it was divided to the past year? It seems weird to think how things change, along and including personalities. I don't mean to be sarcastic or snide, but I can't get used to different situations. But it also seems that time buffers everything. Have you noticed? There isn't much more that I can say - I just hope that differences can be forgotten or put up with. It's worse. And you know, you were right when you said we got along better when we both have guys!

All the happiness in the world to you,
Jill

From one piano player

luck in all you do & don't forget me.
